RELEVANT INFORMATION

New Chief Financial Officer

Interconexión Eléctrica S.A. E.S.P. (ISA) informs that Daniel Isaza Bonnet will take over as Chief Financial Officer as of January 2, 2023. Daniel held the position of Chief Business Development Officer since 2018, the year he joined the company.

Daniel is a business administrator from CESA, an economist from Western Sydney University, and has studied senior management and leadership at Harvard Business School. He has 22 years of experience in corporate finance, investment banking, corporate development, and structuring of infrastructure projects, as well as broad experience in leadership positions. He has also served on the boards of directors of publicly traded energy and infrastructure companies in Latin America.

As Chief Business Development Officer, he led the growth process and strategic alliances in all sectors and geographies. During his tenure, ISA secured investments of ~US$4.6 billion in more than 30 assets and electric power transmission, road concessions, and digital infrastructure projects awarded in public tenders in Brazil, Chile, Colombia, and Peru, or through M&A transactions.

Before joining ISA, he was executive and financial structuring manager of Empresa Metro de Bogotá. He started his career in investment banking at Rothschild and Ágora, an investment banking boutique he co-founded in 2005.

In the next few days, it will be announced who will take over as Chief Business Development Officer.
